Are we Liars?

You know if we were talking about us we would say anything to get you to come in to give us a shot. So, don't believe us. Take a look at what your friends and neighbors are saying:

- "Y'all have definitely stirred things up in the local coffee scene!"
- Lynn Neillie, Aqua-Tots (Pumpkin Latte)
- "The only coffee shop that isn't pretentious."
- Katrina Muir, Half-Price Books (Soy Latte)
- "Change Nothin' you already da shit! Staff is Lovely and Courteous."- Yolanda McRae, YEM Promotions
- "Good music, good coffee, internet, a nice place to break for the day and the crowd isn't as stuffy as most Austin Coffee Houses."
- Mark Tilton, (Caramel Latte)
- "Cool Vibe, Cool Peeps" - Tamo Sein, 101X (Non-Fat Latte)
- "This Place is heaven on earth with Angels as baristas."
- Emily Sprout (Cha-Cha Chicken Sammich)
- "Love the Martial Art Influence."- Eris Solis, (Mochas)
- "I like the atmosphere and the music. It's very laid back. I would definitely come here to study. Also, your latte is way better than Starbucks!!! I found a new coffee shop to go to!"
- Letticia, Student (Mocha Martini)
- "This Place Fin' Rules!!!" - Brian Everett (Dos Equis)
- "Kick Butt Coffee is like Bushido. It keeps me in a state of sound mind and body." - Rachel Portillo (Mint mocha)

"With a name like Kick Butt, you'd think the atmosphere in these coffeehouses would lean toward assertive—or at least jittery.

"Kick back" is far more descriptive.

Unpretentious and un-corporate,

Kick Butt Coffee Music & Booze is the creation of Austin's renowned Tai Chi and Kung Fu master, Thomas Gohring (pictured). Here you're just as likely to bump into artists, musicians and poets as you are entrepreneurs, office workers and bean counters. The art of latte-making has been mastered.

Deliciously original "sammiches" named for legends like Jackie Chan are featured on the menu. And don't resist treating yourself to the

"Ying Yang" white and dark chocolate cake

has earned its well-deserved black belt in mouth-watering fare and entertaining yet relaxed ambience. The only thing you'll have to fight here is the impulse to sip, eat and linger all day and night."
